Whether yoga retreat, workshop, or ceremony – our beautiful Temple of Remembrance, a 75 sqm dome, offers an ideal space for deep connection and shared growth.

Bodhi Farm, located in the Costa Vicentina Natural Park, just five minutes from Aljezur, invites you to slow down and reconnect. From the dome, the view opens wide toward the west and Monte Clérigo Beach – a setting that naturally supports pausing, recharging, and coming together.

With its unique architecture, harmonious acoustics, and natural ventilation, the dome creates an atmosphere that beautifully supports yoga, dance, meditation, music, and healing work.

A retreat space for special events

Several times a year, Bodhi Farm becomes an exclusive retreat location – a space for spirituality, transformation, and deep rest.

At its heart is our dome, complemented by a lovingly designed farm kitchen nestled among vegetable beds and fruit trees, offering an authentic farm-life experience. Cooking, sharing meals, and connecting become an integral part of the retreat journey.

As we offer only a limited number of dates each year, we carefully curate the retreats, organizers, and facilitators we welcome.

1. General rules

The Temple of Remembrance is located on a natural private property within a protected nature reserve. Please treat the dome, the farm kitchen, the playground, and the surrounding land with respect and mindfulness.

Use of the space is permitted only for the agreed activity (e.g. yoga, workshops, retreats). Commercial or other uses require prior approval.

No open fire outside the dome – Portugal is a high wildfire risk area, therefore any kind of fire outdoors is strictly prohibited.

Inside the dome, only candles placed on fireproof surfaces are allowed.

Smoking is prohibited on the entire property.

. Cleaning & order

The dome is handed over clean and must be left in a proper and tidy condition. If yoga mats are rented, they must be cleaned with mat spray after use and bolsters returned neatly to their place.

Waste separation is mandatory – please use the designated bins.

For every booking of the dome, farm kitchen, or tiny house, a mandatory final cleaning fee applies, calculated according to effort at €15 per hour (including cleaning of the dome, showers, and toilets), or the space may be cleaned independently to replace the fee.

The farm kitchen must be left clean, including washing dishes and disposing of waste.

Showers and toilets may be used freely during retreats/trainings; their use is already included in the cleaning fee.

Only biological soap may be used – this is provided by Bodhi Farm and available in the showers.

Please bring your own towels.
